

Mainstream Systems with Continuum of Care Paradigm

Local, state, and federal mainstream systems of services and housing (a.k.a. 'the Safety Net') are critical participants in the response to homelessness across California. Most direct service, housing and treatment programs rely on multiple funding streams and agencies, both CBOs and government. Local Continua of Care include the following mainstream partners.

* Increasingly, Continua of Care are including local mainstream partners that bear the brunt of the costs of not adequately serving people who are chronically homeless.
