JOIN HOMEBASE’S CRIMINAL LEGAL SYSTEM INITIATIVE FOR

Common Obstacles and Creative Approaches to Meeting the Housing Needs of People Who Have Been Incarcerated

Date: Thursday, January 26th, 2023  |  Time: 9:30am -11:00am PST

Click Here to Register!

INCLUDING SPEAKERS FROM:

- San Diego: Community Care Coordination Program
- San Diego: Office of the Public Defender
- Oakland: Lao Family Community Development

The webinar will:

- Explore how to initiate collaboration between housing providers and criminal legal system partners
- Highlight the importance of building cross-cultural relationships to serve your community more effectively
- Consider how integrating services and housing navigation can lower barriers to housing

These are some of the programs highlighted in Homebase’s recent report:

No Bars to Home: Meeting the Housing Needs of People Impacted by the Criminal Legal System.

Improving housing access for people who have been incarcerated requires collaboration, partnership, and creativity across many sectors. We are excited for you to join us in learning about effective strategies and discussing pathways forward.